DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to the loving memory of all the saints and holy martyrs who taught the true Catholic faith and defended it with their lives.

INTRODUCTION

The Church's motherhood over humanity is supreme, for it is the motherhood of the queen of heaven made by God. The Church therefore has the responsibility of guiding morals in the world, of teaching men truth, of bringing them to the Saviour, Jesus Christ, of defending their souls against Satan and all his instruments of false religions and teachings in the world.

ARTICLE 1: WHO IS TO BE BLAMED

The modern man especially this generation worries about the things of the body and price them higher and more valuable than the things of the soul. He worries no more about the afterlife. What matters to him now is the life of the planet.

The moral authority in the world has been wounded to the ground, and is unable to rise up due to the overwhelming pain of the wound. And so our cities are on fire, babies are killed before they are born or shortly after they are born, men are marrying their fellow men and women are marrying their fellow women, our streets are filled with chaos.

What happened to the moral authority that has held the world and kept madness away from the majority of men for centuries? Where do you belong in this? Who is to be blamed?

ARTICLE 2: THE MODERNIST'S WISH

The modernist adopts and keeps an alien order. And when he's called to the true order he despises it and remains with the alien order. He loves the alien; he loves the transition he's beginning to see: a transition from the true order to an alien and false order. He wants a full transition to come and stay; he calls it the new order. But I say to the modernist: where are you going to? Come back; come out of that place you are going! For there is no road there, no life! Come back to the true church, the true order. Come back to holy tradition; come back to eternal life, to endless joy, to unfading peace. Come back!

ARTICLE 3: THE INFALLIBLE TRADITION, MAGISTERIUM AND SACRED SCRIPTURE

And the gates of hell shall not prevail against the Church. Yes, and this Church is built by Christ on Peter down to the Popes throughout the ages past whom handed down tradition, magisterium and sacred scripture without any contradiction in any of the ages. No contradiction because they were authored by the Holy Spirit in whom there is no shadow of alteration or mistake, and Who exists in eternity which is superior to time and governs it such that eternal decisions or ways are always fitting to the changing time no matter the stage of time. Therefore, bishops, priests, religious and all lay people in this age and in all the ages to come until the end of the world must preserve this tradition and this magisterium and this sacred scripture that have been passed down to them by the holy Fathers. They must not contradict it, they must not take it away, and they must defend it at all times and anywhere.

Therefore, the man who sees this tradition, this magisterium, this sacred scripture being attacked and taken away or destroyed, and does not stand up and defend it but keeps quiet or supports them, saying to himself: "the gate of hell shall not prevail against the Church", that man is not a part of the Church, for he has refused to defend the life of the Church, proving by that that the life of the Church is not his life.

ARTICLE 4: THIS WORLD IS FALLING APART

This world is falling apart; there is so much disorder everywhere, not essentially because the unbelievers are not believing but because the church's hierarchy is failing: the bishops are falling apart, they are misbehaving, many have gone mad and beyond mad. The priests are lost, they can hardly realize or understand that they are priests of the Most High God; they don't just get what that means. The bishops contradict Holy Scriptures, the priests follow suit. They approve homosexuals, something most abhorring to God and sickening to all men of sound mind, and some fornicate with women and throw their vow of chastity to the winds. For this reason the sin of unchastity has crawled heavily down to the lay faithful and several religious, hitting them hard. Then you see unmarried young men and women sleeping with one another as if they are married, fornicating and it doesn't seem as anything to them anymore, it is now a normal life for them; sin is no longer seen as sin: fornication reigns among the unmarried and adultery among the married. Lies, deception, hatred, wars, betrayals and uncharity reign as a result of this, for sin brings about another sin, and they've thrown the sacrament of penance away out of their hearts; and so irreverence for Jesus in the holy Eucharist grows, poor celebration of the holy Mass and desecration of the sacred body and blood of our Lord are common and happening every day in so many parishes around the world. I tell you, this world is scattered, it is falling apart, but God is not mocked! Men, I tell you, are only killing themselves. Woe to those who when the Master comes knocking shall find them not ready but still swimming in their unrepentance, in their stupidity, in their sin!

ARTICLE 5: SEE THE ENEMIES WITHIN

The enemies of the church are there within her ranks. Any bishop or priest or religious that's in favour of gay or transgender or abortion or changing Catholic truth, morals or doctrines is the enemy within. He is either made so by men to advance satanism or he made himself so for the love of money and pleasure. He is not with the truth, and he knows it but does not care because he isn't repented yet.

The lay faithful that support such bishop or priest or religious are either direct or indirect enemies of the church with him.

Look out therefore for these people, for the enemy is not difficult to be identified, no, it is not difficult to know him; by their fruits you shall know them. These are the false prophets, the wolves in sheep clothing, the Cains, the Judases. They are the strong support of evil in this world and the strong reason there isn't God's blessings of peace, progress and happiness in it. For as the light of salvation shines through the Church to men to suppress the darkness of evil that robs them of their peace and joy, these men stay within the church disguised and fighting against the light to stop it from shining and saving men so that darkness can destroy men's life.

These men are very cunning, they are liars, pretenders, hypocrites, saying one thing now but doing the exact opposite and even promoting this opposite under the cover of darkness. They appear as sheep but are wolves, they appear as prophets but are evil incarnates, they deceive, they lie, and will deceive to the very end only those who have chosen to be deceived because they are blind and deaf and have refused to be healed. The enemies of the church within the church are obvious, you can see them if you have eyes.

ARTICLE 6: A TRUE SHEPHERD PROTECTS THE SHEEP, A HIRELING FLEES

The church is going down, being attacked by wolves but the good bishops are silent. We see these wolves, we know them, we hear them speak, and we understand their malice. They range from the current papacy through the Vatican down to several Cardinals and many bishops and priests, all attacking the faith, but the good bishops are silent like onlookers as if waiting to see what become of the church while things grow worse every day. A true shepherd protects the sheep from wolves but a hireling, when he sees the wolves, runs away to save his life, leaving the sheep to be devoured mercilessly. And when a good priest gets fed up with all the nonsense going on today and speaks up aloud against the wolves then you see these same bishops with a rush go down to the priest and quickly shut him up and send him away. They know how to silence the good priests but do not know how to protect the deposit of faith, the apostolic tradition, something which is in fact their fundamental obligation. They shall answer for it on the Day of Judgment.

The church is going down, the wolves are advancing and attacking, the sheep are left defenseless and are falling apart, the good bishops are silent and in the comfort of their homes, watching and waiting for Christ to come down from heaven once more and defend His body. And some say they are praying. It is good to pray but it is not enough! You must work while you pray.

The man who is good defends good even with his life. That is what proves him truly good. But the good man whom out of fear abandons good to destruction and flees to save his life is not good at all. He is a hireling, not the shepherd. "The habit does not make the monk". Always remember that!

ARTICLE 7: THE HOLY CHURCH SHALL RISE AGAIN

The enemies of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus look at the present state of the church especially in the Vatican and laugh and rejoice that they are now in control of the world and the church. But fools you are for your rejoicing! For you are greatly deceived. For do you not know that evil is powerless? You have no wisdom! Now listen, this is what will happen:

The holy church of Christ shall rise again strong and brighter with a strong and firm shepherd, and your evils shall be shut out and rebuked like men do to a weak fool. Then the church shall shine in its brightness to all men and their blindness and unbelief shall be healed. And this brightness shall remain until the very end of age which shall not tarry but shall come quickly when you shall unjustly kill the holy shepherd, bringing your accursed short time on earth which shall quickly lead you all to your eternal woe.

ARTICLE 8: THE PAGANS' ILLUSION

Through this Pope, the present pontificate the pagans many of whom are now wearing red hats and being addressed as his eminence, his lordship, father and are now inhabiting many of our cathedrals and parishes with hundreds and thousands of priests and religious and seminarians under their control, through this current Pope these pagans wish to take over the church. They say to themselves: "this is our Pope. He's of our liking. He listens to us, obeys us and does our bidding. Our time has finally arrived. We must not waste it but seize this opportunity and establish our reign forever. This is our Pope the Pope of our own making"

Now listen you fools, no one makes a Pope but God, and if he does not listen to God he shall disappear for the one who will listen to God to take over. You shall never have a true Pope to carry out your evil plans.

ARTICLE 9: THE POPE MUST BE LOVED, HIS ERRORS MUST BE REJECTED

The Pope is of great importance, a beloved father given to the church to guard and keep her house safe while the Holy Ghost guides her (it is not the Pope that guides the church. The Holy Ghost does). If then the Pope gives in to error and becomes perverted, contradicting the faith; that is a great tragedy. In this it is the responsibility of all the faithful to reject his errors, first, for the sake of your home, the church, and in protection of it; and second, for the sake of charity in helping him guard the church (a prime duty he's failing by his errors) and in calling him to repentance for the salvation of his soul, for he too is an ordinary human like us all. The greatness of the tragedy his perversions bring can be overwhelming but you must, while opposing his errors, love and respect him for the sake of that most important and holiest office he occupies which remains the center of the saints until this world ends. This center is the reason I said to you that the pagans can never succeed with their plan of globalism through a validly elected Pope.

They must go through a false one.

The Pope must be loved, his errors must be rejected, and the faithful must be made to know this truth.

APPENDIX 1

The Popes don't destroy or abolish tradition; they pass it down from generation to generation as they received it. For what they pass down is not there's but belongs to Christ alone to Whom they must render account of how they've served the good of salvation which He has given to His people through the Popes to be guarded and supplied unblemished to them for their eternal salvation.

It is an absolute necessity that the Pope be infallible. So that having consulted tradition, sacred scripture and authentic magisterium, and be sure he isn't contradicting any; he can speak infallible words to clarify matters on faith or morals. For how else can God communicate with men if not through His pastors? Or how can right and truth be withheld from men if they must be saved?
